Chiefs Add Four to Roster

Chilliwack Chiefs Head Coach and General Manager Jason Tatarnic today announced the addition of four players, all forwards for the 2016-17 season.

Joining the Chiefs will be David Jankowski (1997), Tom Lee (1997), Anthony Vincent (1997) and Cole Poliziani (1997).

All four join the Chiefs from Salisbury Prep School in Connecticut.

“We are extremely pleased to add these four players to our program,” said Tatarnic. “Coming from a quality school like Salisbury, we know they are prepared to make the move to our league. They are four quality individuals who will bring the character that we expect from our players. All four are skilled players who will be able to contribute offensively.”

David Jankowski

Position: Forward

Date of Birth: May 25, 1997

Hometown: Dundas, Ontario

Height: 6'1 Weight: 175

On joining the Chiefs: “I am very excited to join the Chiefs next season. The BCHL is one of the best junior hockey leagues in North America and I can't wait to play for a top notch organization. I am looking forward to getting out to Chilliwack and starting the season.”

Tatarnic on Jankowski: “David is a very smart player who has the ability to make plays in the offensive zone. He brings size to our forward group, and we think he can contribute offensively.”
